MEN'S BOOK STUDY & FELLOWSHIP

The men's book study, "A Wanted Man", has been postponed until late summer/fall due to low participation. An organizational meeting to plan the schedule will be held in mid-August.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TEACHER NEEDED

There is a need for a 3-4 grade VBS teacher. If you are able to help with this contact Kay Knight at 715-460-2131 ASAP. Vacation Bible School is held July 23-27, 1-4 p.m.

PAINT NEEDED

Sue Miller is looking for latex (water clean-up), white and gray, paint for use for VBS. Can be interior or exterior, but must be latex. If you have any you can donate contact Sue.

PILL BOTTLES NO LONGER ACCEPTED

The Lutheran Children's Foundation is no longer accepting empty pill bottles. We will no longer be collecting these unless someone has a source for dispensing of them. If you know of one, contact Shorty Miller.

WELCOME TEAM / HOSPITALITY CAPTAIN

The Elders are seeking an individual to serve our congregation as HOSPITALITY CAPTAIN, to oversee the various tasks of hospitality and welcoming. This person would recruit others to be part of a WELCOMING TEAM. This isn't meant to be a committee that holds meetings but a team that serves by showing hospitality to both members of our congregation and visitors to worship or other events hosted by St. Peter's. The WELCOMING TEAM would include Ushers and Greeters and others. If you'd like to see a complete job description or have any other questions, let Pr. Janice or one of the Elders know [Nancy Heiman, Faye Miller, David Schmidt, & Shawn Peebles]. Please pray about who God might be raising up to be our Hospitality Captain.

LINDA JORDAN TO BE GUEST SPEAKER JULY 22

Linda Jordan, Wycliffe Bible Translator, will be our guest speaker on Sunday, July 22, 9 a.m. She will be giving an update on how God has opened doors for language assessment and Bible translation in Angola. Linda has been a member of Wycliffe Bible Translators since 1999. Read more about Linda in our July newsletter.
